

Booking through: Eventbrite-National Landscape Forum

THURSDAY 24TH MAY THE KILLALOE HOTEL.
6-9PM	OFFICIAL LAUNCH : 6PM – EXHIBITION OPENING - 'PLACES AND FACES OF LOUGH DERG' AT THE LIBRARY ROOM, THE KILLALOE HOTEL 6.30PM: AT THE VIEW ROOM, LAUNCH OF THE FORUM & UPDATE ON NATIONAL LANDSCAPE STRATEGY, MARTIN COLREAVY, DEPT OF CULTURE, HERITAGE AND THE GAELTACHT WATERSCAPES IN CONTEXT TALK –TERRY O'REGAN OF LAI AND MARK BOYDEN OF STREAMSCAPES 8PM SHARP: ONE HOUR CRUISE ON THE BOAT THE 'SPIRIT OF KILLALOE'
FRIDAY 25TH MAY-FULL DAY, MAIN EVENT.
8.30 TO 9AM	REGISTRATION
9.15 TO 10:45AM	WELCOME AND OPENING PRESENTATION. 9.00 – Welcome & Introduction to the proceedings – Ruth Minogue 9.10 – Opening address – Michael Starrett, CEO, Heritage Council 9.20 – Keynote Address – Jonathan Porter, Countryside describes the Scottish Natural Heritage 'Talking about our Place' project 10am: Waterscape Management - Waterways Ireland/Clare Co Co/EPA/Dept of Culture, Heritage and the Gaeltacht.
10:45 - 11 AM COFFEE/TEA BREAK
PLENARY SESSIONS X 2 11AM TO 1PM
Planning for Waterscapes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Clare County Council-experience of planning for landscapes Brian McCarthy, Senior Planner Clare Co Co 	Understanding our Changing Waterscapes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Historical settlement around the River Shannon and Killaloe – Una Kierse, Historian

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Development of Clarisford Park and community health- Caroline Madden (Planner) WE2 and Dr Tadgh McIntyre (Go Green) • The Hericoast Project & Strategic Environmental Assessment and Landscape – Ruth Minogue • Built Heritage of our Waterscapes-David Humphries, Architectural Conservation Practitioners ACP. 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cultural Value of our wetlands – Dr Tadgh O’Mahony, EPA • Citizen Science and waterscapes – LAWCO • Faces and Places of Lough Derg Photography Project: Killaloe Ballina Family Resource Centre – Jan Yard • Art and Waterscapes – Mary Conlon Co-Director Ormston House, Limerick –member of River//Cities
1-1:45 LUNCH	AT KILLALOE HOTEL
2- 3.30	FIELDTRIPS
KILLALOE TOWN WALKING TOUR WITH ACCESS TO KILLALOE CATHEDRAL TOWER Walking field trip to Killaloe with access to 10th Century Bell Tower of Killaloe Cathedral (allows views over two counties of the River Shannon). The focus of this fieldtrip will be the historical changes and development around the River and Killaloe. Led by historian Una Kierse, Historian
CLARISFORD PARK – HEALTH AND LANDSCAPES A ‘Go Green’ guided walk with Dr Tadgh McIntyre, psychologist at University of Limerick. The walk will highlight how our brains respond to landscapes such as those found along the River Shannon, using Clarisford Park as the case study. Led Dr Tadgh McIntyre University of Limerick.
WATER AND TOURISM BUS TRIP TO MOUNTSHANNON A planned 18th village with walk through the Aistear Park, and views to Inis Cealtra and down to harbour – this fieldtrip will look at history, tourism and management of Holy island (Inis Cealtra). Led by Ruth Minogue, Landscape Alliance Ireland
3.30 TO 4PM BACK TO HOTEL TEA/COFFEE
4.00 TO 4.45	GROUP DISCUSSIONS ON EACH THEME	BASED ON THE FIELDTRIPS
4:45 TO 5.30		REPORTING BACK AND SUGGESTED ACTIONS

IRISH LANDSCAPE INSTITUTE
INSTITIÚID TÍRDHREACHA NA hÉIREANN

IFLA

Email: landscapeallianceireland@gmail.com. <http://www.lai-ireland.com/landscape-f-i-welcome.html> A member of Civilscape www.civilscape.eu

The National Landscape Forum 2018 has been kindly sponsored by the following:

An Roinn
Cultúir, Oidhreachta agus Gaeltachta
Department of
Culture, Heritage and the Gaeltacht

An Chomhairle Oidhreachta
The Heritage Council

Comhairle Contae an Chláir
Clare County Council

Our partners are:

